

Lesson 09: Would you like to go out for dinner?

Objective: Making invitations/Politely accept or decline invitations

Making Invitations: Would you like to...?

Would you like to (do something)?
Do you want to (do something)?

Accepting/Rejecting:

Yes, I would like to. / Yes, I can. / Sure, that would be fun.

No, I can't, because...

Discussion Questions:

How often do you invite friends to have dinner?

How often do you invite friends to go to the movies?

What do you like to do in your free time with your friends?

If you had more free time, what would you do?

What would you like to do for your birthday?

Which country would you like to visit?

How do you feel when someone declines your invitation?

Do you have any plans for this weekend?

What do you really want to do during summer vacation? Winter vacation?

Do you like to do spontaneous activities or have a specific plan?

Invite your classmate to do the things you like to do.

Example:

A: Hey John, would you like to play golf with me on Saturday.

B: Yes, I would like to play golf with you on Saturday. I like to play golf.

A: Hey Bob, would you like to play golf with me on Saturday.

B: Umm... I don't know how to play golf, so I can't play golf with you.
