

First Impression and Introductions

Warm-up Questions:

1. What is first impression and why is it important?
2. How can you make a good first impression?
3. Were you ever wrong about someone's first impression?
4. What was your first impression of....?
5. What are helpful ways to break the ice with someone?
6. What are safe topics to talk about when breaking the ice with someone?

Expressions(Engaging conversation):

I don't believe we've met.

I don't believe I've seen you before.

Looks like I'm not the only one who forgot an umbrella.

Looks like I'm not the only one who needs energy.

Role-Play:

Introduce yourself to a new employee in the break room and engage in small talk.

You move into a new apartment and meet your next door neighbor.

You are meeting your boyfriend/girlfriend's parents for the first time.

Activity: Make a list of useful tips to make a good first impression or how to have a good small talk.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.