

Conjunctions - because, and, so, but

General Rule:

Because: reason

And: in addition

So: conclude, summarize, restate ideas, effect/consequence

But: contrast, opposite

Examples:

1. I ate pizza last night, because
2. I was tired, because
3. He got married, because
4. She went to Europe because
5. They played soccer because
6. I wanted to lose weight so
7. I was happy so
8. She went shopping so
9. He was angry so
10. They were fighting so
11. I met his friend and
12. She sang and
13. Bobby ate dinner and
14. I studied English and
15. They talked and
16. I didn't study but
17. He went on a diet but
18. John was rich but
19. I drank a lot last night but
20. I was a good student but