

Discussion Questions: Pet Peeves and Annoyances

1. What is your biggest pet peeve?
2. Do you find that certain types of people tend to annoy you more than others? If so, who?
3. How do you deal with people who have annoying habits or behaviors?
4. Have you ever confronted someone about their annoying behavior? If so, what happened?
5. Do you think it's important to tell people when they are being annoying or should you just let it go?
6. What is something that used to annoy you, but no longer bothers you? Why did your attitude change?
7. Do you think people are aware of their own annoying habits? Why or why not?
8. Have you ever been told that you are annoying? If so, how did you react?
9. Do you have any strategies for dealing with people or situations that annoy you?
10. How do you think culture influences what people find annoying?
11. Is it possible to change someone's annoying behavior? If so, how?
12. What is something that you find annoying that many people seem to enjoy?
13. Do you think technology has made it easier or harder to avoid annoying people or situations?
14. Do you think people are more or less tolerant of annoying behavior now than in the past? Why?
15. Have you ever stopped being friends with someone because of their annoying behavior?
16. What is something you do that you know annoys others?
17. Do you think it's better to ignore annoying behavior or address it directly?
18. Do you have any pet peeves related to communication or language use?
19. Do you think it's possible to be annoyed by something that doesn't bother other people? Why or why not?
20. How do you think people can avoid becoming annoying to others?