

The Good Place: Season 2 Episode 10

“Rhonda, Diana, Jake, and Trent”

New Vocabulary & Expressions

- Unforgivable: Too bad to be forgiven.
  - "His actions were unforgivable, and the consequences were severe."
- Serendipity: The occurrence of events by chance in a happy or beneficial way.
  - "They found each other by serendipity, and their lives changed forever."
- Contrived: Artificially created or arranged, not natural.
  - "The solution to their problem felt contrived."

Comprehension Questions

1. Who are the new characters introduced in this episode, and what do they represent?
2. What complications arise when the group interacts with these new individuals?
3. How does this episode challenge the characters' sense of self?

Discussion Questions

1. How do you feel about the addition of new characters in this episode? Do they add to or distract from the main story?
2. What role does fate play in the interactions between the characters?