

The Good Place: Season 2 Episode 11

“The Burrito”

New Vocabulary & Expressions

- Epiphany: A sudden realization or insight.
  - "She had an epiphany that changed her perspective on life."
- Turbulent: Characterized by conflict or disorder.
  - "The turbulent relationship made it difficult for them to communicate."
- Altruism: The selfless concern for the well-being of others.
  - "Her altruism was evident in everything she did for the community."

Comprehension Questions

1. What is the significance of the burrito in this episode?
2. How does the show portray the difference between self-interest and altruism?
3. What major decision does Eleanor make in this episode, and what is its impact?

Discussion Questions

1. Do you think the characters' actions are guided more by selfish or altruistic motives?
2. How does Eleanor's epiphany shape her growth in the series?